

FOOD

NOSTALGIA ON A PLATE
Home-cooked classics, by Jane Fearnley-Whittingstall

A LUST FOR (LATER) LIFE
THE SILVER ISSUE

HAVE BUS PASS
WILL... TRAVEL
WORLD AS A DJ
Meet the not so shy or retiring types
redefining what it means to get old

PLEATED SKIRT AND PASTELS?
OH, PLEASE!
The older women who really know how to work
a look

TALKIN' 'BOUT MY GENERATION
THE MOST FASCINATING
SURVEY YET
OF OVER-60s' VIEWS

stella

Ring the changes We love cocktail rings in summer. These gold-plated Raindrop rings with moonstone, green chrysoprase or rutilated quartz are gorgeous. £160; zarasimon.com

STELLA LOVES...

Compiled by Nisha Lilia Diu

THIS WEEK'S MUST DO, SEE, BUY 6 June 2010

Relative values

Nicole Holofcener, the writer-director of Friends with Money and Lovely & Amazing, turns her lens on a group of female relatives in Please Give. The brilliantly observed characters (played by the wonderful Catherine Keener and Rebecca Hall among others) provide many hilariously squirmy moments of self-recognition.

Out 18 June

JENNIFER EGAN, the bestselling author of The Keep, returns with another spellbinding tale. A Visit from the Goon Squad delves into the pasts – and futures – of a washed-up talent spotter and a thirtysomething kleptomaniac at a New York record company, from the 1970s punk scene in San Francisco all the way to divorce in the suburbs. Knopf, £17.53

BUDDING GENIUS

These BOTANICAL CHARTS from Whippet Grey are so decorative it's hard to believe they were devised for educational purposes. The beautifully rendered drawings were created in Germany in the 1950s and 1960s and were originally intended to aid scientific study. £48; whippetgrey.co.uk

IF YOU'RE LOOKING FOR SOME GROWN-UP GLAMOUR head to the Milroy at Les Ambassadeurs. This spectacular private members' club (where Princess Margaret partied in the 1960s) features a fabulous restaurant whose head chef was previously at Claridge's and La Tante Claire. It has just opened to non-members for lunch. 020 7317 6108

Belle curves

LSA's new Mia collection is made from mouth-blown recycled glass. The understated, effortlessly stylish pieces include this softly ribbed wine carafe, glasses, candle-holder and vase. £11.95; lsa-international.co.uk

KEEPING UP WITH JONES

In a perfect example of growing old disgracefully, 61-year-old Grace Jones is following up her raucous appearances in Cannes with a headline gig at the Lovebox festival, London E9, on 18 July. Don't miss it. One-day ticket, £45; 0844 847 2436

Full Stop

*WIN THIS

Elizabeth Arden is offering 10 Stella readers a bottle of its new and improved Prevage Advanced Anti-Ageing Serum (worth £145). Prevage contains idebenone, one of the most powerful antioxidants currently available for cosmetic use. Log on to telegraph.co.uk/promotions to enter

THE NEWS IN BRIEFS

The girdles, stockings and bullet bras sold by Secrets in Lace are so authentic-looking they were used on the set of the 1960s drama Mad Men. If this is the figure-shaping underwear behind Joan Holloway's curves, that's all the convincing we need. Bettie Page Bullet Bra, $49 (£34), Pin-up Brief, $19 (£13); secretsinlace.com

CHEAP TRICK

A nude box bag à la Jackie Onassis oozes classic elegance. This chain-handle style from Marks & Spencer is lovely. £29.50; marksandspencer.com