Jewels for the Summer

I just splashed out a little on some very beautiful jewellery by Zara Simon. I especially love the star earrings with the little rubies, and have had loads of complements in the last week since I bought them. Her unique style is playful but elegant, bold but feminine, and I always think you can't go wrong with gold jewellery and colourful stones for the summer, especially if you have a tan! She also sells on Avenue 32.
